The Star Spangled Banner

Oh, say, can you see, by the dawn's early light, What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming, Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight, O'er the ramparts we watched were so gallantly streaming? And the rocket's red glare, the bombs bursting in air, Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there. Oh, say, does that Star Spangled Banner yet wave, O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

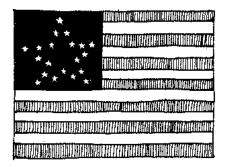

Words by Francis Scott Key, 1814 Music by John Stafford Smith, 1700's Here are some earlier American flags. Each one on the left has a match on the right. Draw a line connecting each pair. Circle the first American flag.

- Father and I went down to camp Along with Captain Gooding, And there we saw the men and boys As thick as hasty pudding.

Johnny is excited to get home to his family. In this maze there are three ways he can get home. Trace each one with a different color. Which way is shortest?

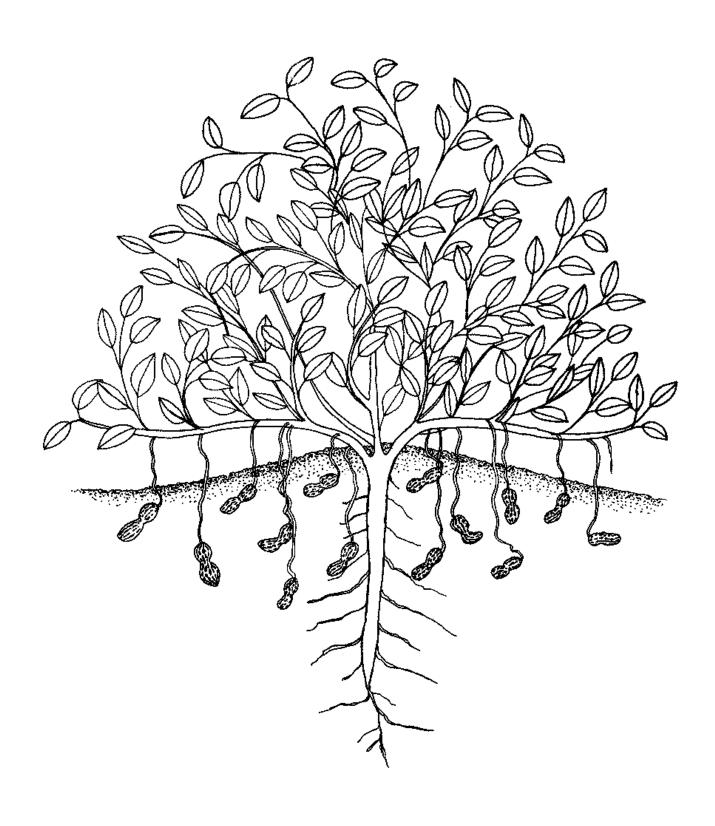

When Johnny Comes Marching Home

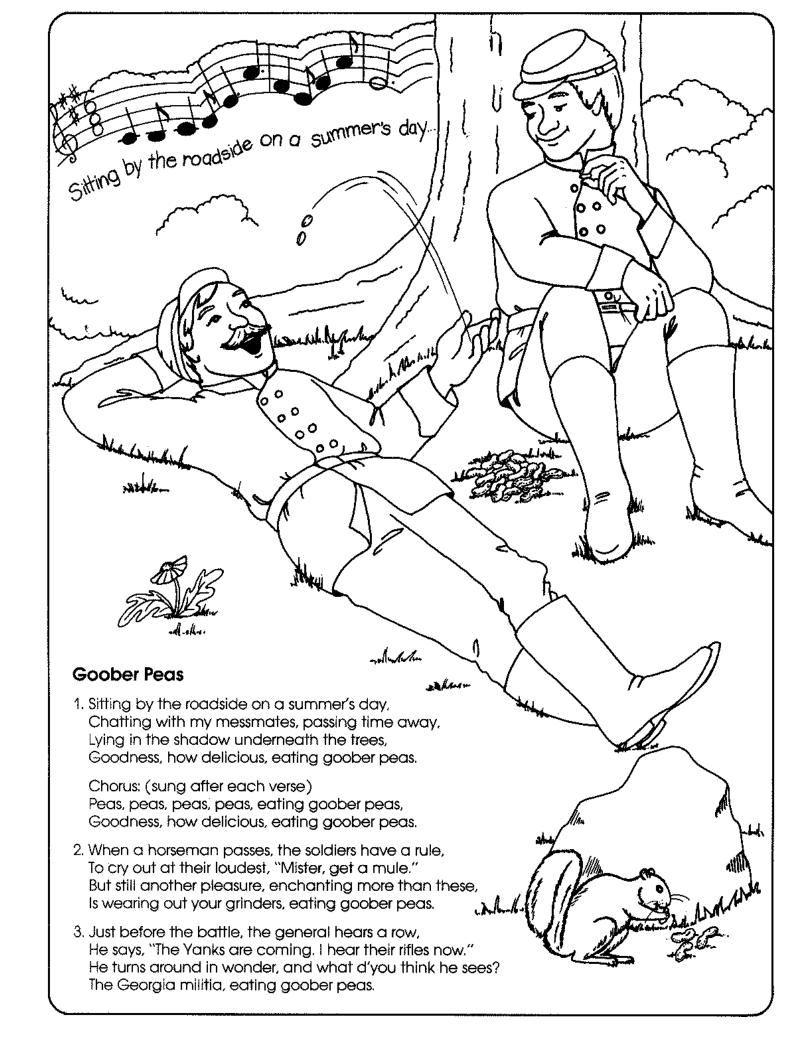

- When Johnny comes marching home again, Hurrah! Hurrah!
 We'll give him a hearty welcome then, Hurrah! Hurrah!
 The men will cheer, the boys will shout,
 The ladies they will all turn out,
 And we'll all feel gay
 When Johnny comes marching home!
- 2. The old church bell will peal with joy, Hurrah! Hurrah! To welcome home our darling boy, Hurrah! Hurrah! The village lads and lassies say With roses they will strew the way, And we'll all feel gay When Johnny comes marching home!

- 3. Get ready for the jubilee,
 Hurrah! Hurrah!
 We'll give the heroes three times three,
 Hurrah! Hurrah!
 The laurel wreath is ready now
 To place upon his loyal brow,
 And we'll all feel gay
 When Johnny comes marching home!
- 4. Let love and friendship on that day,
 Hurrah! Hurrah!
 Their choicest treasures then display,
 Hurrah! Hurrah!
 And let each one perform some part,
 To fill with joy the warrior's heart,
 And we'll all feel gay
 When Johnny comes marching home!

 There's twenty tarriers a-workin' on the rock,
 And the boss comes along and he says, "Keep still,
 And come down heavy on the cast iron drill."

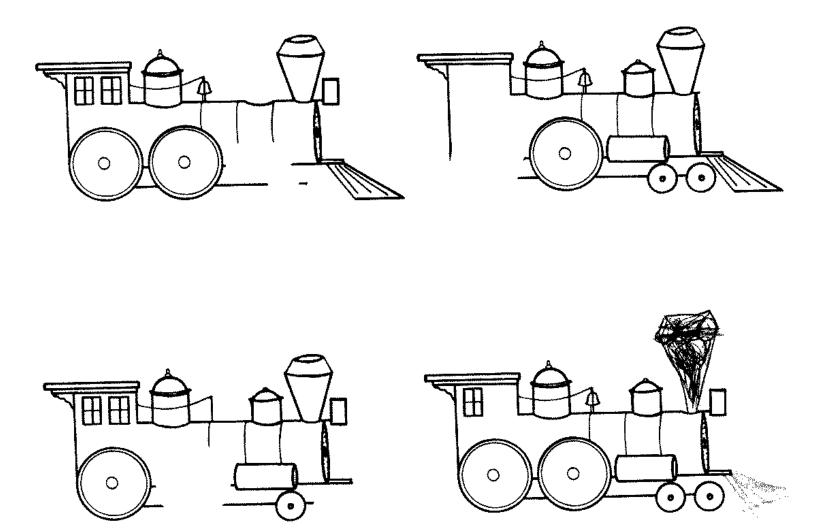

Chorus: (sung after each verse)
And drill, ye tarriers, drill.
Drill, ye tarriers, drill.
For it's work all day for sugar in your tay,
Down beyond the railway,
And drill, ye tarriers, drill!
And blast! And fire!

As I was a-walking one morning for pleasure,
 I spied a ców puncher a-riding along.
 His hat was throwed back and his spurs was a-jingling,
 And as he approached, he was singing this song;

Chorus: (sung after each verse)
Whoopee ti-yi-yo, git along little dogies,
It's your misfortune and none of my own.
Whoopee ti-yi-yo, git along little dogies,
For you know Wyoming will be your new home.

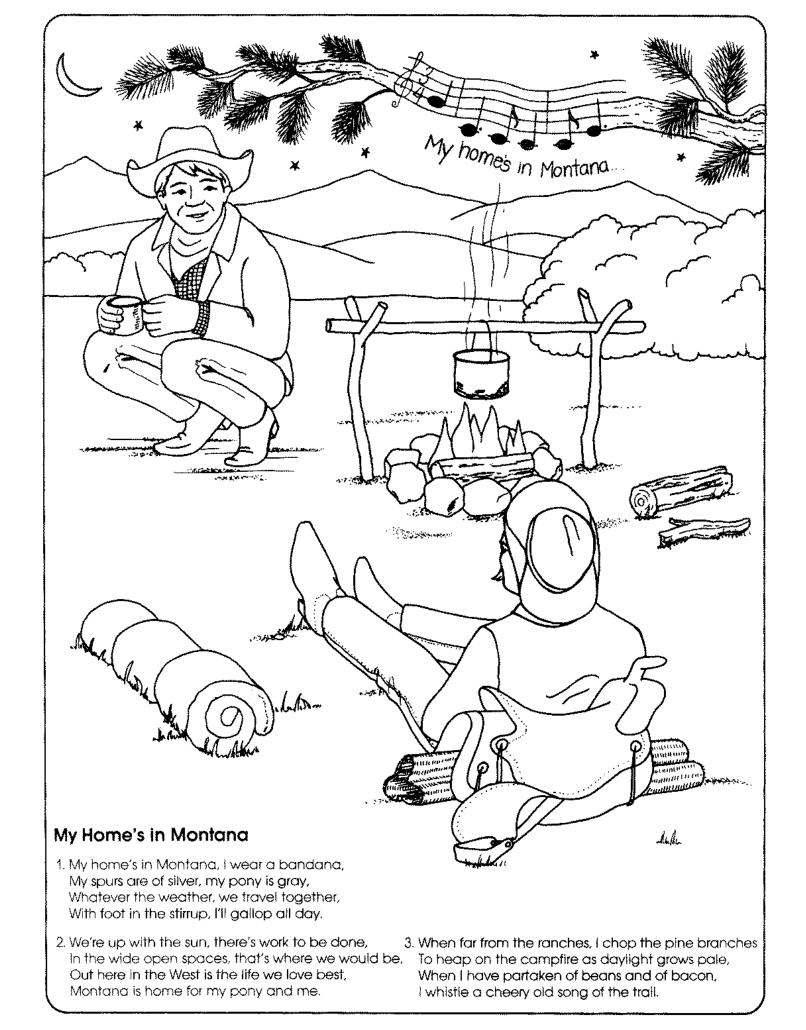

- It's early in spring that we round up the dogies,
 We mark 'em and brand 'em and bob off their tails,
 We round up the horses, load up the chuck wagon,
 And then throw the dogies out on the long trail.
- 3. Some fellows go up the trail for pleasure, But that's where they get it most awfully wrong, For you haven't an idea the trouble they give us, As we go driving those dogies along.

 And I have been frequently sold,
 And I have been frequently sold,
 I've tunneled, hydraulicked and cradled,
 And I have been frequently sold.

- *formed by repetition of the fourth and third lines of each verse

- So, rolling my grub in my blanket,
 I left all my tools on the ground,
 I started one morning to shank it
 For the country they call Puget Sound.
- 4. When I looked on the prospects so gloomy, The tears trickled over my face, And I thought that my troubles had brought me, To the end of the jumping-off place.
- 5. I tried to get out of the country, But poverty forced me to stay, Until I became an old settler, Then nothing could drive me away.
- 6. No longer the slave of ambition, laugh at the world and its shams, As I think of my pleasant condition Surrounded by acres of clams.
